Dear Clergy of the Arkansas Second Jurisdiction,

This letter is being sent at the request of Bishop D. L. Lindsey, Prelate of the Arkansas Second Jurisdiction concerning clergy attire during the upcoming annual jurisdictional convocation to be held in Hot Springs, Arkansas, July 23-27, 2008.

The Most Right Reverend Charles E. Blake
Presiding Bishop

On Thursday night, July 24, 2008, the Presiding Bishop of the Church Of God In Christ, Inc., Bishop Charles E. Blake will be the special guest. The attire for clergy will be a basic black suit (no pin stripes, long coats, embroideries, pins, or handkerchiefs please) with the black clergy shirt and the full roman clergy collar - no tabs. This is better known as "Class B" attire.

The Right Reverend Matthew Williams
Adjutant General

On Friday morning, July 25, 2008, we will have the communion and ordination worship and the same attire is requested. A basic black suit (no pin stripes, long coats, embroideries, pins, or handkerchiefs please) with the black clergy shirt and the full roman clergy collar - no tabs. This is known as the "Class B" attire.

The Reverend
Reginald L. Williams
Overseer / Assistant to the Adjutant General

On Sunday morning, July 27, 2008, at the official day service. The same attire is requested. A basic black suit (no pin stripes, long coats, embroideries, pins, or handkerchiefs please) with the clergy shirt and the full roman clergy collar - no tabs. Again, this is known as the "Class B" attire. It has been requested that licensed ministers wear a basic black suit with a white shirt and a solid black tie on these days.

The Reverend
Lawrence C. Blake
*Overseer / Apostolic
Adjutant*
